

Barren River DEIC

April 15, 2005

Members/Designees Present: Toby Black, Sandy Hackbarth, Fred Dent, Tina Smith, Eva Graham, Beth Schaeffer, Heather Kessler, Julie Allen, & Betsy Kitchens

Staff Present: Donna Croslin, Bethanie Christman, Dawn Miller, Nan Slaughter, & Sandra Wilson

Guests Present: Melanie Napier, Dawn Boyles, & Susan Broady

SUBJECT	DISCUSSION
Welcome and Announcements	Betsy Kitchens called the meeting to order at 8:30 The business meeting agenda was change at the request of Toby Black to start with Old and New business first	Discussion of roles of co
Old Business 1. Family Fun Fair 2. March of Dimes	The Family Fun Fair will be combined with Back to School Bashes when we can tap a larger population of families We will plan to have a display at this event at the end of April	Nan Slaughter has check County Schools and they School Bash None needed
New Business 1. Budget 2. New Address 3. Meeting times 4. ICC 5. Infant Toddler Conf	Sandra Wilson reminded us that we have $1000 through WKU which we have to request materials through by 6/1. We have to use WKU vendors. We did pay for transition booklets and brochures for First Steps LAST YEAR and they have not yet been delivered. Betsy Kitchens announced that RCDC has a new address: 1600 Scottsville Rd., Suite 100 email regionalbg@bellsouth.net Julie Allen suggested that we look at summer meetings for the DEIC. We will cancel July and Dec. meetings Nan Slaughter requested a provider/parent attend the ICC meeting in Frankfort on July 14 to offer insight into concerns to this committee The conference is scheduled for August 25-25 in Lexington. Scholarships for families are available	POE will decide their ne in the requests to Sandra None needed Voted YES Tabled until the May me Discuss next month whe of this opportunity.

SUBJECT	DISCUSSION
POE Report	Donna Croslin reviewed the March report. 33 cases were closed. There were 37 new referrals and 12 re-referrals. There are provider shortages in all counties. Provider changes include Kim Taylor, PT (moved); Wanda Murrie, PT no longer providing services; Dinah Wilson, DI and Christy Owens, OT are new providers.	None needed
Technical Assistance Team	Reported by Sandra Wilson, Dawn Miller, and Nan Slaughter. Two individuals are interested in becoming PSCs and one SLP are scheduled for training A Fatherhood Initiative Conference in Lexington is April 28-29 and is free. Contact larry.michaelczyk@ky.gov Nan Slaughter is doing program evaluations and she is seeing good things happening.	None needed
Julie Allen motioned that the meeting be adjourned. Beth Schaeffer seconded, Betsy Kitchens adjourned the meeting
	Submitted by Toby Black and Beth Schaeffer	